

NMI IS LOOKING FOR A PART-TIME STUDENT-WORKER IN COPENHAGEN

Nordic Microfinance Initiative (NMI) is looking for a part-time student-worker interested in impact investments in developing countries. The vacant position is focused on Impact Management & Measurement and Social Performance. The position is located in the Copenhagen office and the student will work closely with the Social Performance Manager.

Tasks:

- obtain social performance reporting from NMI's 18 portfolio companies.
- aggregated data into various reports on quarterly and annual basis.
- analyse data to identify developments / trends.
- obtain, edit and publish client stories.
- introduce social performance to new portfolio companies.
- project tasks relate to the further development of impact management & measurement.

We are looking for a student, who:

- will soon complete a bachelor's degree from CBS, KU, RUC, AAU or other.
- is interested in staying in the position for minimum two years.
- is diligent and exact in data management, analysis and documentation.
- has good analytical skills and attention to detail.
- has excellent Excel and PowerPoint skills.
- can communicate, read, and write in professional English.
- can translate theory into simple concepts, practices and communication.

Practicalities:

- NMI currently has 16 employees in Oslo (10), Delhi (2), Nairobi (1), Jakarta (1) and Copenhagen (1).
- Workplace: Fredericiagade 27, 1310 Copenhagen K.
- Preferred start-date: 17th August.
- Hours per week: 10-15 (minimum 43 hrs per month).

How to apply:

- Send motivation letter, CV, grade transcript to ls@nmimicro.no
- Deadline for application: 1st July 2020.

About NMI:

Nordic Microfinance Initiative's vision is to contribute to the empowerment of poor people in developing countries and to the creation of jobs and wealth on a sustainable basis. This is done by investing in and supporting microfinance institutions (MFI). NMI was established in 2008 in Oslo, Norway as a partnership between the public sector and private investors. Norfund and IFU, the Norwegian and Danish governmental investment funds for developing countries, represent the Norwegian and Danish States. The private investors include DNB Livsforsikring, Ferd, KLP, Storebrand, TD Veen and PBU.

Read more: <https://www.nmimicro.no/>